INSTRUCTIONS (contd.)

3. The "unit countersignature" space will be signed by an officer and the unit stamp and date space completed (upon one side of the form only) when a soldier is transferred away from the unit or when it is necessary to authenticate the document, e.g. for production as evidence. 4. On transfer, the record will be included as one of the soldier's documents upon A.F.H 198 (Receipt for Documents). 5. Any articles for which no heading is provided upon the form will be entered in the blank columns in approximate order (alphabetically or in vocabulary sections).
